Truman Supports Marshall

Hope of Eventual Peace Not Increased By Exchange of Notes With Russia

WASHINGTON, May 13 — (AP) —President Truman said today that his hopes for eventual peace have not been increased by the recent exchange of notes with Russia.

The President told a news conference he is supporting to the limit Secretary of State Marshall's statement that what is needed is action, rather than general talks. Marshall said yesterday that if Russia desires to promote peace she can act through the United Nations and other Allied agencies.

The secretary of state ruled out any two-nation, Russo-American talks on matters of concern also to other nations.

President Truman said Marshall covered thoroughly the situation as left by the exchange of notes between Russia and the United States.

Would Meet Stalin

In response to questions, the President repeated what he has said often before—that he would be glad to meet with Soviet Premier Stalin in Washington.

Asked what the two would talk about at such a meeting, the President said he would let the newsmen know if such a meeting ever came about.

The whole reaction here to Russia's publication of the notes suggests that the chance for any real improvement in relations between Russia and the United States hinges on whether there will be a basic change in Soviet foreign policy.

That is indicated strongly by the statements of all top officials.

At Mr. Truman's conference, the questioning which led to his statement on peace prospects went in this manner.

No Basic Change

A reporter recalled that the President told a news conference some weeks ago that his confidence in eventual permanent peace had been somewhat shaken by developments abroad. He asked what the President thought were the prospects for permanent peace.

Mr. Truman said he though there had been no basic change in the prospects.

He remarked that he has said repeatedly that this nation will work through the United Nations and that ultimately there will be peace throughout the world.

In reply to other questions, Mr. Truman said the note Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith handed Foreign Minister Molotov had his approval and that of his cabinet.

Considered It All

Someone asked if he and the cabinet had considered the last paragraph of Smith's note.

(The Russians interpreted that part as an invitation to two-power talks.)

The President replied that the matter had been considered from the beginning to the yours truly.

Then he added that he did not see that the exchange of notes had increased materially the prospects for peace.

Three Killed In Hotel Blast

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 13.—(AP)—Three persons were injured in an explosion which blew out all windows of the 7-story Auto hotel today near First and Broadway, in the heart of Oklahoma City.

Fire Chief G. A. McAlpine said the explosion apparently came from igniting of gasoline fumes in the basement while a gasoline truck was in an alley between the Auto hotel and the Medical Arts building.

Most of the damage was confined to the basement and first floor of the building. Six automobiles were damaged.

Debris was scattered in the street between the damaged building and the Skirvin Tower hotel.

The most seriously injured apparently was a woman, identified at St. Anthony's hospital as Margaret Jane Johnston. She was walking at the alley-way when the explosion occurred. The woman's legs were broken and she has internal and head injuries.

Others injured were two Negro employes of the Auto hotel.

Herman Ross was taken to Mercy hospital. He was working in the basement at the time of the explosion.

Two "Good" Reasons

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(AP)—There are two "good" reasons for congress authorizing renewal of government premium payments on lead, zinc, copper, manganese and other strategic metals, Rep. Meyer (R-Kas.) said today.

He listed:

1. The nation's stockpile of strategic metals would be increased by adoption of the plan.

2. Payments of premiums would increase exploration work in the hope of finding new ore veins.

Second Defeat Of Kansas City School Levy

Teachers, Principals Recommend Seven Months School Term

KANSAS CITY, May 13—(AP)—A second defeat yesterday of an emergency school tax levy leaves the Kansas City school system facing a shortage of funds for the 1948-49 term.

The board of education, which has stated a full 10-month term would be impossible without the added revenue, was scheduled to meet late today to map a course of action.

A recommendation for a seven-months school year with the term beginning Nov. 29 instead of September 6, was made by the Teachers Cooperative Council, an organization of 1,259 teachers and principals. The group said in a statement that teachers will need a full period of five consecutive months of outside employment to adequately support themselves and their families during the coming school year.

About 1,000 of the council members said they would attend the board session.

The voters yesterday rejected a proposed one-year 7-mill levy by a vote of 26,583 for, to 25,151 against. The proposal did not receive the required two-thirds majority.

The school board's first request for 8½ mills over a four-year period was defeated resoundingly April 27 by a vote of 39,829 against to 22,988 in favor.

As A Supplement

The emergency levy was proposed to supplement the regular 10-mill levy permitted by the state constitution. An extra 3-mill used by the schools the last two years has expired.

The special elections were called after the state legislature turned down requests for other forms of taxation to support the Kansas City schools.

Another election on a special levy cannot be held because the tax rate must be certified by Saturday.

The 7-mill levy would have added about $2,000,000 next year over the operating budget of this year. The loss of the levy and expiration of the old 3-mill levy will mean a net decrease of $1,500,000 under this year's budget.

Says She Lives On Water Alone

NANKING, May 13.—(AP)—The strange case of a 20-year-old Chinese girl who said she lived on water alone for nine years was reported today by the newspaper Hsin Min Pao.

The newspaper said the public health director at Chungking had confirmed the report. The girl, Yang Mai, was said to have suffered no apparent ill effects.

"When she sleeps her face is covered by a crimson glow of exceeding beauty," the newspaper said to describe her healthy appearance.

Hsin Min Pao said the girl, a resident of Szechwan province, went to live with a herd of cattle nine years ago when her stepmother abused her.

A doctor and a nurse have been sent from Nanking to investigate.

Captured as he Fell Into Ditch

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., May 13—(AP)—Caroll Marcell Marriott, 23, of Versailles, Mo., who escaped from a state prison farm near Jefferson City April 15, was captured early today when he stumbled into a ditch just as a state trooper fired at him.

Answering a prowler call at a home south of Springfield, troopers found a car abandoned with a flat tire. An hour later, they spotted the car approaching at the north city limits and gave chase.

Marriott abandoned the car when the hood blew up and blocked his vision. A patrolman pursued him on foot and when three warning shots failed to stop him, took careful aim.

Marriott tumbled into a ditch just as the trooper fired, and the officer believed he had killed the man.

Marriott, pale and visibly shaken, admitted he is the escaped convict and that he had stolen five cars in Missouri and Arkansas since he "just walked away" from the prison farm.

The car he was driving when troopers saw him was stolen last night at Branson, Mo. The state patrol said Marriott's companion in the escape, James Albert Lovett, 25, was recaptured April 20.

U. S.-Soviet News in Russia

MOSCOW, May 13.—(AP)—Soviet-American relations dominated the news today in Russian newspapers and on the radio.

All papers published a synopsis of Secretary of State George C. Marshall's news conference yesterday and President Truman's statement of the day before concerning the diplomatic exchange last week between Ambassador Walter B. Smith and Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov.

All of them also carried Henry Wallace's open letter to Prime Minister Stalin and accounts of his address at Madison Square Garden, New York, Tuesday night, including his six recommended measures for improvement of relations between Russia and the United States.

The Russian people thus were told, in the Truman-Marshall story, that no two-power conference on Soviet-American relations is contemplated by the United States.

They also were told, in the Wallace story, that Wallace believes there has been an "extraordinary use of the veto" in the United Nations and that he termed this "a symptom of lack of confidence between the two countries."

To Honor Woman Editor

DENVER, May 13.—(AP)—Catherine Dines Prosser, woman's page editor of the Denver Post, will be given a distinguished alumnae award by Central College of Fayette, Mo., May 30.

Miss Prosser also has been chosen as "a woman of achievement in Missouri" and will be guest of honor at a dinner in St. Louis May 27.

She has been woman's page editor for 18 years and is president of the National Federation of Press Women.

Darby Re-Elected

KANSAS CITY, May 13.—(AP)—Harry Darby of Kansas City, Kas., has been re-elected president of the American Royal Livestock and Horse Show. He has served since 1941 in that post, and was a vice president 20 years previously. The show will be held October 16-23.

They Really Have Complaint

JEFFERSON CITY, May 13—(AP)—Residents of Napton, Mo., want to be connected to Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's lines at Marshall, Mo., because now, they say, they can't call anyone but their own neighbors.

In fact, since December they haven't been able to phone even their neighbors, they told the Missouri Public Service Commission today.

At present they are connected with a privately owned exchange at Arrow Rock. The service through that exchange, the 28 Napton residents said in their petition, is "totally inadequate" because:

1. They can't call anyone but immediate neighbors.

2. All their business is transacted through Marshall but they can't reach Marshall by phone.

3. Since last December they have had no service at all. (They didn't explain what had happened to the service since then.)

They described themselves as residents of Arrow Rock township in Saline county.

Hospital Day Open House at The Bothwell

The John H. Bothwell Memorial hospital was visited Wednesday, National Hospital Day, by about 250 people, who were shown through the building by nurses, nurse aides and Gray Ladies of the Red Cross.

National Hospital Day is observed in honor of the nursing profession, which was founded by Florence Nightingale, whose untiring effort in furthering her profession is an inspiration to all nurses. May 12, the day on which Miss Nightingale was born in 1820, is set aside each year as a tribute to her and the women who have followed her profession.

Members of the auxiliary to the Pettis County Medical Society served punch and cookies during the afternoon and evening. A lace table cloth covered the counter in the front of the building which was used as a table. A large crystal punch bowl was in the center with three branch candelabra holding lighted white tapers on either side. Large plates of fancy cookies were placed along the counter.

Many Flowers

The main corridors was filled with baskets of flowers, gifts of various firms and organizations and many individuals.

Visitors were taken through the building where they were shown the different types of equipment, given a general idea of the functioning of the hospital and shown the improvements and redecorating that is now being done in the building.

The kitchen has been remodeled and redecorated with some improvements made. There is a new food conveyor to take the food to the different floors. One large room has been redecorated and another one is being re-plastered and will also be redecorated. They are both o the first floor on the east side and will now be used as women's wards. The office has also been redecorated in a light blue shade and new lights have been installed. Numerous other improvements are planned.

Miss Beth Frances Dewar is the superintendent of nurses at the Bothwell hospital and registered nurses under her are Mrs. Anna Bunch, Mrs. Glenr Browning, Miss Margaret Collins, Mrs. Herbert Emo, Mrs. Thomas Foster, Mrs. Harry Gloth, Mrs. Margaret Dalby, Mrs. Cleo Hartnett, Miss Esther Meisenheimer, Mrs. Ira Hardin, Mrs. Gordon Potter, Miss Ruth Renfrow, Mrs. Frank C. Royce, Mrs. Thomas Shaffer, Miss Nora Mae Thompson and Miss Enid M. Wherley.

James Franks is manager.

Friday Is Kid Day At Smith-Cotton Hi

The seniors of Smith-Cotton high school will celebrate Kid Day Friday. They will be dressed in various costumes. The program for the day is as follows: At 9 o'clock they will have their annual Kid Day program in the auditorium of the high school, followed by a picnic at the Abell Farm, located five miles southeast of town. At 2 p. m. they will attend the show at the Fox Theatre, which will be "Sleep My Love." Between 5:00 and 8:00 o'clock they will be "on their own" until the dance, which will be held at Convention hall. Faculty members are the chaperons for the day.

Killed When Car Overturns

BERRYVILLE, Ark., May 13.—(AP)—Emit P. Horton, 22, Lamar, Mo., was killed last night when his automobile overturned four miles east of here on U. S. Highway 62.

A companion, J. F. Cramer, 18, Baltimore, Md., suffered severe lacerations on the legs. Cramer had hitchhiked a ride with Horton.

The two were en route to Lamar from Green Forest, Ark., where Horton had visited relatives.

Sedalia Club Carries Gavel To Versailles

Kiwanians and Wives Guests at Fish Fry Supper

Seventy-two Kiwanians, Kiwani Queens and guests, motored to Versailles Wednesday evening with the Kiwanis governor's traveling gavel which was received by the Sedalia club from Jefferson City. The Versailles club will take the gavel to the Boonville Kiwanis club next Wednesday.

After the invocation by Capt. A. R. Rush, a fish fry dinner prepared and served by the Versailles club in the roller skating rink at the junction of highways 52 and 5, was thoroughly enjoyed by the Sedalians.

Roger Meyer, president of the Versailles club, presided and welcomed the visitors. He then turned the meeting over to T. H. Yount, interclub chairman, who stated the purpose of the gathering and introduced Bert Hathaway, president of the Sedalia club as master of ceremonies. Club singing was led by Abe Rosenthal of Sedalia and F. Carver Searcy of Versailles, with Mrs. W. L. Monegan, pianist. Miss Lillian Fox of Sedalia played two piano solos. Abe Rosenthal played a violin solo, accompanied on the piano by Miss Fox. Dan Robinson, chairman of the membership and classification committee, presented Roland Luster as a new member of the Sedalia club. Rev. H. U. Campbell, assisted by Rev. Val Strader of Versailles, inducted him into membership of the Sedalia club.

Ben Robinson, president of the Sedalia club, presented the traveling gavel to Roger Meyer, president of the Versailles club.

Mrs. and Mrs. Garver Searcy sang two numbers, after which the meeting adjourned and the guests enjoyed an hour of recreation together.

Those present from Sedalia were: Mr. and Mrs. Ben Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sterling, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hathaway, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keyser, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Schrankler, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McLaughlin, Rev. and Mrs. H. U. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dean, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Downs.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Evans, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Harned, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hemphill, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hunt, W. M. Johns, W. J. Kennedy, Miss Lillian Fox, Mrs. W. L. Monegan, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Klang, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lindstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Malone, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Maunders, Mr. and Mrs. Pinkney Miller, George Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Miller, Mr. and Mrs. William Faulkner.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Norlin, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Luster, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Pharris, Abe Rosenthal, Captain and Mrs. A. R. Rush, Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Scott, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wilks, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Yount and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bailey.

There were fifty-six present from the Versailles club.

Elks Announce Many Activities

At the regular meeting of No. 125, B. P. O. E. last night in the Elks' home, with Exalted Ruler Sam Highleyman presiding, financial support to the Freedom Train was pledged and the following schedule of events announced:

Wednesday, May 19, at 6:30 p. m. the annual chicken dinner to Elks, given by the Elks' Auxiliary.

A dance will be given Saturday night, May 22 by the entertainment committee of which Lloyd Taylor is chairman.

Wednesday, May 26, is "Old Timers' Night" at which time the lodge will honor the older members who made possible the present location of the lodge building. A special class will be initiated by past exalted rulers of No. 125.

On Wednesday, June 16, at 8 o'clock the Elks will observe their annual Flag Day services in the lodge room of their building at Fourth and Kentucky. An impressive program is being arranged and the public is invited to this annual observance.

Leslie W. Long is chairman of the Flag day committee.

President and Cabinet Cannot Be Forced to Divulge Secrets

WASHINGTON, May 13—(AP)—President Truman today defied congress to get confidential information from the White House or the cabinet.

He told a news conference that congress has no right to confidential records of members of his cabinet.

He said he would veto any legislation requiring such records and that he did not believe the veto would be overridden.

The courts have held repeatedly, he said, that the president and his cabinet cannot be forced to divulge confidential information.

Congressional committee workers and officials in executive agencies appear likely to be the only persons subject to jail terms under a so-called "secrets" bill now pending.

The dual purpose of the measure — still on the unfinished business list after a day of house debate yesterday — is to (1) force executive agencies created by congress to give information to congressional committees and (2) punish those who divulge the information after it is declared confidential.

Ready for a vote when the house adjourned yesterday was an amendment by Rep. Brown (R-Ohio) specifically excluding from the penalty provision individuals other than congressmen and committee employes.

Strike Threat Hangs Over The Railroads

CIO-UAW Begin Second Day of Picketing Chrysler

By The Associated Press

The threat of a nationwide strike of CIO long distance telephone operators was added today to the already turbulent labor situation.

Seventy-six thousand CIO workers of Chrysler corporation are on strike. Still threatening is a nationwide tieup of the railroads.

In brief here is the breakdown:

Telephones—The CIO American Telephone Workers Union set up plans for a walkout of 25,000 long distance operators. President John J. Moran of the union said action of American Telephone and Telegraph company and "failure to find some method of effecting a peaceful settlement leaves us with but one choice—nationwide strike."

Rails — A spokesman for the three brotherhoods which called off a strike earlier this week said the unions will run trains as long as the government remains in control of the roads. But the minute private management takes over a strike will be called—unless there is a settlement in the meantime.

Automobiles—The CIO United Auto Workers began their second day of picketing in the wage dispute with Chrysler. A kitty of $8,000,000 being raised through assessments on members gave strength to reports the strike would be long, lasting possibly two months.

Bitter Strike

Farm Equipment—A long and bitter strike at the Caterpillar Tractor company in Peoria ended in the wake of an NLRB election. The CIO United Farm Equipment and Metal Workers union, which called the strike 35 days ago, was not on the ballot, but a runoff election between the rival CIO and AFL United Auto Workers unions will be necessary.

Steel — CIO President Philip Murray—also head of the steelworkers—said the major steel companies have refused to negotiate new contracts unless the union complies with Taft-Hartley law anti-Communist provisions. He told the USW convention in Boston that the executive board needs "power to make this enormous determination" of signing or not.

Strike Drags On

Meat — The CIO meat packing strike, dragging on since March 16, showed no changes.

Printing — The International Typographical Union was studying a "final offer" of $9 weekly increase from the Chicago Newspaper Publishers Association. A strike against the city's five major daily newspapers began Nov. 24.

Truman's Farm Message Friday

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(AP)—President Truman said today he hopes to send a farm program message to congress tomorrow.

He told his weekly news conference, however, that he is not ready to announce the appointment of a new secretary of agriculture. He'll do that, he added, as soon as he gets the man.

Clinton Anderson resigned Monday as secretary to run for the senate in New Mexico, with the President's blessing.

Mr. Truman gave no indication what he will propose in tomorrow's message, regarded as a bid for the farmers' vote.

The Republican-controlled senate agriculture committee got the jump on Mr. Truman yesterday by laying down a long-range farm plan, calling for a revised price support program.

Democratic leaders had indicated earlier this week they would seek to win the farm ballot by plugging the theme that the Republican congress would take no action this year on a permanent farm program.

Moving Pictures At Kiwanis Meeting

Moving pictures of the Bikini atomic bomb experiments known as "Operation Crossroads," was shown by Sergeant H. E. Waite, before Sedalia Kiwanians at their regular weekly meeting in Bothwell hotel, Thursday noon.

President Ben Robinson reported on the Inter-Club meeting held at Versailles Wednesday evening.

Guests today were: Abe Silverman with Ben Robinson and Paul C. Maxwell with W. P. Hurley.

Scottish Rite Club Election

A. F. Scott, 1421 West Fourth street, was elected president of the local Scottish Rite Club, Wednesday night at a meeting held at the Knights of Pythias hall.

A. F. Scott

Other officers elected were W. L. Matthews, first vice president; Herschel Rissler, of Hughesville, second vice president, 32nd degree Masons and E. W. Kettleson, K. C. C. H., secretary.

Mr. Scott succeeds Dr. F. O. Murphy, outgoing president.

Bothwell Hospital Notes

Admitted for medical treatment: Mrs. Jerry T. Vardeman, Hughesville.

Dismissed: Mrs. Orville Stout and daughter, 1901 West Second street; Miss Melba Dean Coit, 513 West Seventh street; Forrest Hood, 615 West Second street and Clarence Meyer, Route 5, Sedalia and Mrs. M. E. Erwin, 2103 South Limit avenue.

Important Events In The World Today

WASHINGTON, May 13—(AP)—The Senate today sidetracked a civil rights battle at this time by returning to committee a southern states' education compact bill.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(AP)—Southern senators decided today they will take on a civil rights fight in the senate now if backers of anti-segregation laws want to force the issue.

Fifteen Dixie senators agreed at a meeting that they will try to keep their regional education compace bill before the senate. A senate vote is scheduled today on a motion to send the measure back to the judiciary committee.

The civil rights issue is tied in because of a threatened move to add an anti-segregation amendment.

Senator Russell (D-Ga) said the southerners would be agreeable, however, to laying their bill aside temporarily for other matters.

LAKE SUCCESS, May 13.—(AP)—The Jewish Agency charged today the new U. S. plan for a Palestine high commissioner is an attempt to set aside the United Nations partition project.

A Jewish agency spokesman said in a formal statement that the American proposal would increase disorder and conflict in Palestine instead of bringing peace.

The plan was announced last night after President Truman and Secretary of State Marshall conferred in Washington on Palestine.

The U. S. plan, brought forward less than two days before the British end their League of Nations mandate rule over the Holy Land, calls for appointment of a high commissioner to represent the U. N. in Palestine.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(AP)—The House passed today a $55,859,½90 legislative appropriation bill containing an anti-Communist provision affecting an estimated 1,600 employes of the government printing office. It no wgoes to the senate.

The provision forbids use of any federal funds to pay the wages of government workers who are members of unions tha thave not complied with the non-Communist requirement of the Taft-Hartley law.

No Aid To The Russians

Hoffman Plans to Send Only Such Relief as United States Can Spare

WASHINGTON, May 13—(AP)— The United States will shut off economic aid to any European nation which supplies war machinery to Russia, ERP Director Paul Hoffman said today.

Hoffman said:

"We will tell them they must stop it or we won't furnish aid."

The economic cooperation administrator was before the senate appropriations committee to ask further funds for the European recovery program.

Senator Cordon (R-Ore.) asked Hoffman what he intended to do to "control the translation of our goods and money" into war machinery to Russia?

"If it is true," said Hoffman, "that we are furnishing aid and if a country is shipping such commodities (to Russia) they have got to stop it or we won't furnish aid."

Just What Can Be Spared

Hoffman gave the senators assurance, too, that ECA will ship abroad only those goods "which can wisely and safely be spared."

"Continued United States prosperity is paramount to the achievment of European recovery," he said.

Hoffman appeared before the senate appropriations committee to plead for the full $4,245,000,000 balance needed to round out the $5,300,000,000 congress has authorized for the recovery program.

The remainder of the sum has been provided for through advances from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and congress.

The ECA chief promised the committee that requests for aid by European nations will be carefully screened and the use of American dollars overseas will be thoroughly checked.

To Recovery Effort

He also said th program soon will shift from an emergency relief basis to "full pledged recovery efforts."

Hoffman explained that relief shipments of food were necessary at the outset but starting July 1, he said, there will be a "considerable shift" to machinery, materials and similar goods designed to spur recovery.

Starting October 1, he reported, "we are hoping the emphasis will be on the recovery items."

He also gave the senators this tentative estimate of ECA shipments in its first yea:r

Food and farm products, $2,273,900,000; fuel $625,000,000; raw materials $810,100,000; machinery and equipment $776,800,000; miscellaneous $264,600,000.

Other Outlays

Ocean shipping costs and price adjustments will and $311,600,000, Hoffman said, and other outlays will add $82,000,000 to bring the costs to the $5,300,000,000 authorized.

From this may be deducted $55,000,000 in funds already appropriated and $1,000,000,000 obtained through the RFC. This brings the total down to the $4,245,000,000 for which Hoffman asked.

Hoffman conceded that the full $5,300,000,000 authorized is "a lot of money," but said it is lower than independent estimates for the size of the job ahead. He continued:

"The degree of recovery we seek can be accomplished with the amount of money requested only with the most careful planning, the most rigorous supervision of expenditures, and the most favorable crop and other developments in Europe.

"I therefore strongly recommend the appropriation of the full amount requested of the congress."

Opposed to Outlawing Reds

WASHINGTON, May 13—(AP)—President Truman expressed opposition today to outlawing the Communist party in this country.

He gave this view at a news conference during discussion of the Mundt bill to require Communists to register with the government.

Mr. Truman said he was not forecasting his action on that bill if it should reach him, but that he thought that there were ample laws to deal with persons who advocate overthrow of the government.

He added that he thought legislation outlawing a political party is contrary to American principles.

The issue of outlawing the Communist party already has been raised in the Republican presidential campaign by Harold E. Stassen and Gov. Thomas Dewey of New York.

Stassen is for it and Dewey against. Both have agreed to debate the issue in Oregon.

The Daily Washington Merry-go-'Round

by Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, May 13—Several editors have said some nice things about this columnist in connection with winning the Italian election. However, the real man who won the elections stepped out of the Truman cabinet this week and went back to New Mexico to run for the United States senate.

For if Secretary of Agriculture Clinton Anderson had not made a certain, vital decision regarding farm policy at the end of the war, starvation and Communism both would be rampant in Italy today.

Few people know about that decision. It came at the end of the war when American farm leaders had visions of farm surpluses and falling prices. Wanting to avoid a farm slump, the killing of little pigs and the plowing under of cotton, farm leaders urged less production.

But Secretary Anderson said no. This was a tough decision to make. For if Anderson was wrong, it meant that he would be cussed out by farmers for years to come. Carefully he read the reports of David Houston, Secretary of Agriculture under Woodrow Wilson, for guidannce. Houston gave him none.

Nevertheless, Anderson finally demanded that farmers increase, not decrease production — which is the big reason why we have had enough grain to feed Europe.

No Picture Farmer

Clint Anderson has been one of the most refreshing and variegated personalities in the turbulent Truman administration. Once when asked by the March of Time to pose with a pitchfork, he said: "I'm an insurance man, not a farmer." Actually he has a cattle ranch back in Albuquerque, has made a lot of money at insurance, voted against all insurance measures in the house of representatives.

Though wealthy he has made some of the most effective speeches in congress championing labor and blasting lush business profits.

FDR was one of his idols and the Anderson library on the late president is one of the best in the country.

Coming to New Mexico from South Dakota because of lung trouble, Anderson first worked for the Albuquerque Journal where he uncovered the first tip on the Fall-Teapot Dome scandal. This was the fact that the then secretary of the interior had received a $25,000 stallion from Harry Sinclair. That started the train of circumstances which finally upset the Teapot Dome lease, brought two resignations from the Coolidge cabinet and sent both Fall and Sinclair to jail.

Later, Anderson went into insurance, became the biggest individual insurance man in his state, then was elected to the house of representatives. Now Anderson is going home to run for the upper branch of congress — the U. S. senate.

Though Anderson says he was a better congressman than cabinet member, actually he did an outstanding job as secretary of agriculture.

Solving Soap Shortage

Not only in regard to grain, but sugar, copra and cotton was he most farsighted. During the first months after the war, the world, desperately hard up for soap, received no coconuts from the Philippines. Plenty still grew there, but weren't being harvested. So Anderson induced the army and navy to send small boats up Philippine rivers and trucks to inland plantations — until enough copra was carried out to solve the world's fat and soap shortage.

The end of the war also found the U. S. Commodity Credit Corporation with 7,500,000 bales of surplus cotton. Not only was the taxpayer likely to be stuck for this cotton, but the surplus had a depressing effect on the market.

So Anderson conceived the idea of selling it to Japan and Germany for the manufacture of textiles. Both countries needed a nonwar industry, and textiles were the best answer. Anderson sold Japan and Germany the cotton; the American cotton farmer benefited; Europe and Asia got badly needed clothing.

Sugar Salesmanship

One of Anderson's greatest triumphs was his purchase of two Cuban sugar crops at the same time. Sugar then was scarce and in order to keep prices down, he wanted to buy both the 1946 and 1947 Cuban crops. But the Cubans said no and agriculture department emissaries got nowhere with them.

Finally Anderson, himself, went to Cuba, called on President Grau San Martin.

"This is a situation where Cuba can win the goodwill of the United States for a long time," he told the Cuban president. "Cuba faces the alternative of having sugar prices shoot way up, then come down with a crash — or of keeping them steady. A boom and bust such as after the last war isn't going to do you any good. But if you cooperate with us now, we'll remember it."

President Grau said he agreed, but that Cuban workers were afraid the price of U. S. wheat, lard, etc. would go up. So they would find themselves paying more while sugar sold for the same low price.

So Anderson proposed an escalator clause by which the price of sugar would increase if the cost of American lard and wheat increased.

The president of Cuba agreed. In 72 hours Anderson had closed a deal which other emissaries had not been able to sign in six weeks. That is one reason why the price of sugar has remained so stable.

Most people think that running the department of agriculture is a matter of putting out booklets on soil conservation, boll weevil and how to preserve vegetables. But it isn't. And in these days where crop shortages can cause Communism, the USA has been lucky to have as secretary of agriculture a farsighted statesman.

An Army Convoy Passes Through

Wednesday brought back some of the war era, when the town was serried with army personel.

An army convoy, totaling seven trucks, loaded with army passengers, remained over night in Sedalia, while en route to St. Louis traveling from Fort Riley, Kas.

The troop trucks were parked around the police station lot, and the soldiers deployed to various hotels that night, for sleeping quarters.

HAVE YOU HEARD - by Bel Tone

FANS WERE ONCE USED AS HEARING AIDS

YEARS AGO, HARD-OF-HEARING LADIES DISCOVERED THAT THEY COULD HEAR BETTER IF THEY PLACED THE TIPS OF A BONE FAN ALONG THE EDGES OF THEIR TEETH. THE FAN WAS MERELY ASSISTING THE EAR TO PICK UP SOUNDS THROUGH BONE CONDUCTION.

Science Has Worked Miracles For The Hard-Of-Hearing

TODAY, AFTER YEARS OF EXPERIMENTATION AND RESEARCH, THE BELTONE HEARING AID IS BRINGING NEW JOYS IN LIFE TO THOUSANDS OF THE HARD-OF-HEARING. THE NEW BELTONE SYMPHONETTE IS SO LIGHT IN WEIGHT AND SMALL THAT IT MAY BE WORN WITHOUT NOTICE TO WEARER OR OTHERS—YET SO POWERFUL THAT WHISPERS ARE AUDIBLE TO THE HARD-OF-HEARING.

THE TINY NEW BELTONE SYMPHONETTE COMPARES IN SIZE WITH OTHER PERSONAL ARTICLES

YOU CAN HELP A HARD-OF-HEARING FRIEND

YES, YOU CAN BRING THIS KNOWLEDGE TO SOME HARD-OF-HEARING FRIEND OR LOVED ONE BY SENDING THEIR NAME ON A PENNY POST CARD TO HEARING, 1001-A GRAND AVE., KANSAS CITY, MISSOURI. THEY WILL RECEIVE A WONDERFUL NEW ILLUSTRATED BOOKLET TELLING ALL ABOUT HOW TO JUDGE HEARING LOSS. WRITE TODAY!

Smith, Master for the United State Circuit Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit in Cause 2813, not later than 90 days after the date of this notice.

Such claim shall disclose specifically the right to refund, and may be filed:

1. If gas refund check was issued and delivered, but, for some reason, was not cashed within the 90-day period during which said check was valid, or
2. If no check was issued or delivered, or
3. If a check was delivered and thereafter lost, stolen or destroyed, and such check is now unpaid, or
4. If any person, firm, or corporation claims any interest in any unpaid refund check heretofore issued.

Every claim shall be subject to investigation, and must be supported by proof showing the basis and validity thereof. If approved by the Master, such claim will be paid after the expiration of the period of 90 days next after the date of this notice.

Every check issued in payment of any approved claim will become void after a 90-day period from date of issuance thereof. If not cashed within said 90-day period, said refund covered thereby shall be forever barred.

If no such claim to any unpaid refund is made within 90 days after the date of this notice, the right to assert or file any claim therefor shall be forever barred.

Claim may be submitted upon attached coupon, and, if additional proof is necessary, the claimant will be advised of the nature thereof by the Master.

The foregoing Notice has been issued and published pursuant to and in accordance with orders entered of record by the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit in Cause 2813 entitled "Cities Service Gas Company, Petitioner, vs. Federal Power Commission; Public Service Commission of the State of Missouri; the City of Kansas City, Missouri; State Corporation Commission of Kansas; and Corporation Commission of the State of Oklahoma, Respondents."

THE STORY: Charlotte's performance is a tremendous success, but her costumes are so scanty and her dances so daring Patience decides neither aunt must see the show. During the interval, Roger introduces Patience to his friends; they remark on her astonishing resemblance to Charlotte. Patience longs for Paul. After the show is over, Roger escorts her backstage.

XIX

PAUL watched Patience disappear. When he'd first looked up from his seat in the stalls and seen her there in the box above him he'd told himself he must be dreaming. And then that it wasn't of course Patience at all. It was someone very much like her. But she'd turned her head at that moment to speak to Roger Dickson who was with her. She'd made a quick little movement with her hands.

Oh yes, it was Patience all right. He knew those little gestures. Only it was a Patience he'd never seen before. A Patience who was quite lovely. True that time he'd seen her on the train she'd seemed transformed by her new clothes. But tonight in that clinging chiffon dress, with her hair done in that new way—why, tonight she was ravishing! And what the devil was she doing with a fellow like Roger Dickson? How in the name of fortune did she meet him?

Suddenly it struck him that it must have been Dickson she'd been with that day at the station. The day that man and the girl had seen her off at the train. He'd not recognized him then. He'd probably not have recognized him tonight had not the people he was with pointed him out. He wasn't up on stage celebrities.

They had gone out through the pass door. Paul wondered if they were attending the party he'd heard a little group of people in the bar discuss during the interval. It was taking place on the stage after the show.

He wished to heaven he knew someone in the company so that he could cadge an invitation. He'd rather like to confront Patience and ask her what the dickens she thought she was doing.

A thought occurred to him. He might gate-crash. Of course, it would be extremely embarrassing if he didn't bring it off. If someone came up to him and asked his name and inquired from whom he'd received an invitation. But at a gathering like that, was this in the least likely to happen? He'd been to stage parties before. There was always such a crowd and invariably so many people handed out haphazard invitations that no one knew who was supposed to be there.

• • •

THE more he thought about it, the better the idea seemed to him.

Funny, when he had first seen Patience sitting in that stage box, he'd not wanted even to speak to her. He'd felt so darned angry that he'd told himself he never wanted to have anything more to do with her. But now he felt he'd got to see her and have things out.

He begged off joining the people he was with for a late supper and went around to the stage door. A crowd was collected outside it. Autograph hunters and gallery first-nighters waiting to see their idols leave. Only tonight they wouldn't be leaving for quite a while. Tonight there was a large party. Great numbers of people were streaming in.

With a muttered apology, Paul pushed past a little group standing directly in the doorway and walked briskly down a long stone corridor. At the far end he could see a wide entrance giving onto the stage.

An enormous number of people were gathered. Voices were raised in high excited chatter. There was the sound of music and laughter. He hesitated and then walked right ahead, hoping that no one would ask him any awkward questions. He stood on the fringe of men and women looking around him. He recognized various celebrities. The world and his wife seemed to be here this evening. It was an astonishing place in which to be tracking down Patience.

• • •

SUDDENLY he saw her. She was standing some distance off, obviously looking for somebody. Roger Dickson, he supposed angrily.

The sight of her standing there, so utterly different from the Patience he knew and loved, filled him with a burning anger. He wanted to snatch her away from all these people. To say this wasn't the sort of place for her. She didn't belong here amongst this stage crowd. She belonged to the country. To the quiet peace of green fields and little woods. This was quite the wrong setting for her.

Or was he perhaps mistaken? Because she was looking at him coolly and seemed really very much in her element. As if a huge party like this was something to which she was quite accustomed.

And now she was coming toward him. He smiled uncertainly.

"Excuse me," she said and would have pushed past him for all the world as if she didn't know him, but he barred her way.

"Are you cutting me by any chance?"

"I beg your pardon."

"I suppose you're looking for Roger Dickson?"

She stared at him, an odd expression on her face.

"Well, yes, I am."

"Can't you do without him for a moment?"

Her eyes flashed angrily.

"What is all this?" she demanded.

"You wouldn't know, of course. You'll be trying to pretend you don't know me next."

"Well, I don't, do I?"

Hal Boyle's Column

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK, May 12—(AP)—"If you push enough doorbells, you'll sell enough brushes."

That is the simple sales formula on which Alfred C. Fuller, the original Fuller brush man, has built a gigantic house-to-house business.

Fuller, now 63, started in the basement of his sister-in-law's house in 1905. He made the brushes on a $15 second-hand machine in the afternoon and evening, peddled them the next morning.

He doesn't have to push doorbells himself any more. He's so wealthy he doesn't even have to answer the door himself when a Fuller brush man rings his doorbell to try to sell him a brush.

But this year some 7,000 Fuller brush men across the nation will push approximately 43,750,000 doorbells to sell housewives nearly $30,000,000 worth of brushes.

A Familiar Figure

Today the Fuller brush man has become a familiar figure on the American doorstep. Red Skelton has just made a movie about him and the Saturday Evening Post featured him this week in a one of its "Men at Work' series.

What's he like—this door-to-door salesman who has taken the place of the oldtime itinerant peddler and knocks more often than the postman?

The brush company recently polled some of its 7,000 dealers and came up with this picture:

The average Fuller brush man is 40 years old, has a high school education, sets his own hours, earns $70 a week. He has been married 12½ years, has a boy and a girl, owns a 5½ room house and a low-priced car 7½ years old with 52,500 miles on the speedometer.

What He's Like

He owns two radios, has been selling brushes for four years. His favorite hobbies are fishing, gardening and hunting, but he may collect seashells or pictures of steamships. This probably reflects a get-away-from-it-all feeling.

Some 35 per cent saw military service, 36 per cent belong to a fraternal lodge, one out of five has held a public office. Three have been mayors, three were ministers and one was a Royal Canadian mounted policeman who wearied of the horse.

The Fuller brush man works five days a week, pushes 25 doorbells a day, gives free to every prospect a vegetable scrubbing brush that costs him three cents. He has at least 2,000 families in his district, calls on them three or more times a year, sells to one out of every two housewives who come to the door.

135 Items To Sell

The door is his big problem. He isn't allowed to put his foot in it, but once he gets past it he generally figures he's in—Physically and in a sales sense, too. He then has 135 items to sell—from nail brushes to furniture polish.

In one out of 25 cases the Fuller brush man isn't a man at all. He's a Fuller brush lady. The percentage of women salesmen rose during the war.

Strange things happen to the Fuller brush man. He has helped deliver babies, rushed stricken people to hospitals. One saved a child from strangling on a coin by upending the baby and slapping her bottom until the coin dropped out. One was picked up by a policeman looking for a robbery suspect. The Fuller brush man sold the cop a clothesbrush.

Try, Try Again

The Fuller brush man can't bristle when a door slams in his face, has to try, try again.

"One superintendent told me I could never get into his building while he was alive," a Fuller brush man wrote cheerfully. "But he dropped dead, so now I can go into the building."

Many Fuller brush men go on to bigger things. One the company doesn't mention much is Landon C. Kellogg of Westfield, Mass. He began pushing doorbells for Fuller in 1922. Two years later he began manufacturing brushes himself, built the business to a $3,000,000 annual volume by 1936.

Kellogg sold out three months ago and retired at 48. He has a private plane and an estate in Florida.

Now he's like Fuller—doesn't even have to answer his own doorbell.

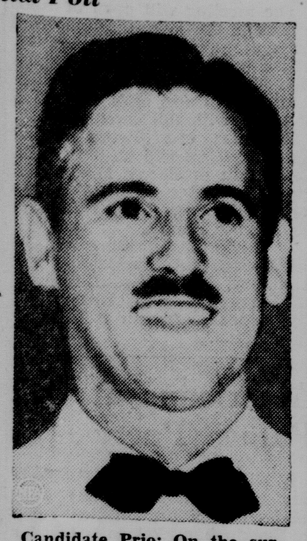
An Honest Election or Martial Law For Cuba?

Army Won't Let Red Riots Interfere With June 1 Presidential Poll

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Communists are using Cuba, where their local power has been stamped out, as a nerve center for Latin American intrigue. Can they use the June presidential elections to get back into a strategic local position? NEA's reporter-at-large tells the story in the second of two exclusive dispatches from the Cuban capital.



Candidate Prio: On the surface, he should win.

By S. BURTON HEATH
NEA Staff Correspondent

HAVANA, Cuba—(NEA)—Competent political observers believe that Cuba is going to have an honest, free presidential election June 1. It would be, they say, only the second such election in the country's history.

Some feel that President Ramon Grau San Martin would be happy if the Communists gave him an excuse to declare martial law, postpone the election indefinitely, and hold into the office. That is the only way he could stay in Cuba's ornate presidential palace, because the Constitution forbids a president succeeding himself.

But Major-General Genevevo Perez Damera, chief of staff, has given public notice that he intends the election to be held on schedule, and to be conducted honestly. Those who should know say that General Perez, sometimes known as "Fat Boy," is honest enough to mean what he says, and powerful enough to make it stick.

Such a situation is considered ironical because Perez started out as Grau's bodyguard and was jumped by the President from lieutenant to general, made chief of staff, and put in command of the army. Apparently there has been no break. It just appears that the general wants things done according to Hoyle.

Instead of waiting for the Reds to start something, so that he could slap them down by force, he has seemed to be trying to prevent any rough stuff. If he succeeds, there can be no excuse for martial law even if President Grau really has such an idea in mind.

Moreover, many believe that if General Perez insists on an honest election he may bring about defeat of the "government candidate," Dr. Carlos Prio Socarras. On the surface Prio should win, He is a long-time associate of President Grau; he was with Grau in exile; he has served efficiently as Minister for Foreign Affairs, as Labor Minister, and as Minister without Portfolio. With the forms of legality he took organized labor in Cuba out of Communist control and gave it to the non-Communist majority.

But in Cuba, as elsewhere, there is a post-war economic letdown. The opposition has a strong, able candidate in Senator Ricardo Nunez Portuondo, a federal senator. While Grau and Prio have been close, it is generally believed that Grau really wanted his cousin, Jose San Martin, as candidate of the Autentico-Republican coalition, and may not be quite 100 per cent enthusiastic in backing Prio.

So political analysts rate the election pretty much of a toss-up, and would be far from surprised if the Cuban New Deal was discarded in favor of the relatively conservative Democrita - Liberal coalition.

Fulgencio Batista, Grau's predecessor who "made the mistake" of running an honest election in 1944, is seeking election to the national Senate from Las Villas province. He is campaigning under difficulties from New York and Daytona Beach because an old warrant is waiting for his return, charging him with misuse of an appropriation for harbor improvement. If he should win he could return, even though Prio became president, because he would thus acquire immunity from arrest.

"Immunity is one right that all these chaps respect," commented an observer, "because none of them ever knows when he might need immunity himself."

Dr. Prio is regarded now as a good friend of the United States, though 15 years ago, when the U. S. declined to recognize Grau after President Machado had been overturned, Prio was pretty bitter.

As president it is assumed that he would continue the clean-up of Communists that he started last July. At that time the Reds were very active Almost daily some major union would picket the Labor Ministry with a long list of demands. The party claimed 150,000 registered members with about 15,000 militant workers, out of a population of five millions. It received 190,000 votes in 1944.

Last summer, when the Fifth Labor Congress was scheduled, trouble arose and Prio called the Exile Batista: By election, he could go home.

Congress off. The left wing, led by Pazaro Pena, went ahead anyway. Prio refused to recognize the Congress, called the right wing into session, and gave the Government's blessing to Angel Cofino, elected by the right wing as head of the Cuban Confederation of Labor.

The left wing has continued to use the Confederation name, but the right wing holds the huge Labor Palace from which most union business is conducted, and apparently has a large majority of the membership.

Besides their strategic central control, the Reds also held key posts in the big national unions—sugar, tobacco, port, railroad, textile, construction and the like. One by one, Prio eased the Reds out of these, too.

But the job is not yet complete. If Prio is elected, and goes on with the cleanup, he will greatly handicap operation of the Soviet intrigue nerve center that he believes is operated by the Russian legation here.

Telephone Call From Germany

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Estes, 1212 East Broadway, received a Mother's Day call from their daughter, Mrs. George E. Wright and First Sergeant George E. Wright, who are in Oberandorf, Germany, with the United States Army.

The call was received about 6:30 o'clock in the evening, after four previous attempts had been made by Sergeant and Mrs. Wright to get the call through. They conversed with Mr. and Mrs. Estes for five minutes before the operator notified them "times up."

1st Sgt. Wright has been stationed in Germany for the past two years, and during the war saw service and was stationed there for nearly three years. Mrs. Wright joined her husband overseas 19 months ago.

Grapefruit as Cattle Feed

LAKE ALFRED, Fla., May 13.—(AP)—Good-natured cattle can be fattened on a grape fruit diet.

But, an expert warned in a talk before cattlemen last night, it won't work if the animals have a trace of wildness. Dr. W. G. Kirk, vice director of Florida's cattle experiment station, said undue excitement seemed to disturb the wild ones. This keeps weight down.

The cattle like the taste of grape fruit—even more so if its fermented a bit, he said. Dr. Kirk added that meat from grape fruit-fed cattle is as good as western beef.

Family Moves Into Hotel

DAYTON, Ohio, May 13.—(AP)—A $50-a-week laborer, his wife and four children set up housekeeping today in a $12-a-day hotel suite after they were evicted from their home.

Charles Bremer, 32, announced he would bill the city for half the hotel cost. Bremer said the decision to move into the hotel last night followed a futile five-month quest for lodgings.

Removed from their rented house which had been sold, the parents and four children—ranging in age from one to five—began a day long hunt for help.

Last night, Bremer said he "gave up" and applied for a room at the hotel. The management, which said Bremer and his family would be treated as any other guests, assigned them to a two-room suite.

Bremer said they would remain in the hotel for five days "or until the city does something about finding us a place to live."

Found Dead in Hotel

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., May 13.—(AP)—Mrs. Edith M. West, 62, of Toledo, Ohio, was found dead in her room at the Colonial hotel here yesterday afternoon.

According to Coroner Clyde Abbott she had died 12 hours earlier of a heart attack.

Mrs. West had come here to visit the grave of her husband, LeRoy West, formerly of Springfield.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Silas C. Paxton

Mrs. Elizabeth Jane Paxton, widow of the late Silas C. Paxton, died at 2 o'clock this morning at her home, 1509 South Ingram avenue.

Mrs. Paxton was born near Pilot Grove, Mo., November 4, 1867, daughter of the late William and Sarah Babbit. She had been confined to her bed for the past eight weeks due to a fractured hip. She was a member of the Fifth Street Methodist church.

Those surviving are: One son, Earl F. Paxton, of 710 West Second street; two daughters, Mrs. Elmer Dillard, of 407 North Prospect, and Mrs. Pete Menefee, of 501 North Park avenue, also seven grand children survive her.

Funeral services will be held at Gillespie Funeral chapel at 2:00 o'clock Saturday afternoon, with the Rev. H. U. Campbell officiating.

Interment will be in the Crown Hill cemetery.

She was born February 19, 1862, the daughter of the late John and Maggie Harms who were then living at Lake Creek.

She was a long time member of the St. Paul's Lutheran church in Sedalia.

She was preceded in death by five brothers and one sister.

Surviving are the following children, George Mein of the home; Mrs. A. J. Schenewerk, Jefferson City; John Kurtz, Sedalia; Emil Kurtz, Kansas City; Mrs. F. C. Hanner, Bloomington, Ill. Also surviving are the following step-children, Martin Mein and Richard Mein of Kansas City; Rudolph Mein of Chanute, Kas.; Mrs. Theodore Jagels of Hepler, Kas.; a sister, Mrs. Melvin Arnold of Route 5, and 16 grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

The body was taken this afternoon to the family home, 1218 East Twelfth street.

Funeral services will be held at St. Paul's Lutheran church at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon with the Rev. E. Bultmann, officiating. A short prayer service will be held at 2:30 o'clock at the home.

Burial will be in the Memorial Park cemetery.

Mrs. Nellie Adams Yost

Mrs. Nellie Adams Yost, widow of the late Gustave L. Yost, of 215 South Quincy avenue, died at the Bothwell hospital Wednesday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock, after an extended illness.

She was born in Louisville, Ky February 20, 1872, the daughter of the late Spencer and Patience Adams.

She was married to Gustave L. Yost, April 17, 1900, in Colorado Springs, Colo., and soon after that time moved to Sedalia, and lived here since.

Her husband preceded her in death in 1942.

The only two survivors are a sister, Mrs. Georgie Ferguson, Detroit, Mich., who has been here with her sister for the past two months and a nephew Guy Stoughton, of Shreveport, La.

Funeral services were held at the McLaughlin chapel, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Pallbearers were those who served for her husband in 1942: John W. Menefee, O. B. Poundstone, Joe W. Reid, George H. Scruton, Burns McGinley and W. M. Johns.

Interment was in the Yost lot at the Memorial Park cemetery.

Walter Paul Kreisler

Walter Paul Kreisler, 47, died at the Bothwell hospital Wednesday morning, after a short illness.

He was married to Augassa Fischer in 1927 and spent his entire life farming near Lincoln.

Surviving are his wife and three children, Marvin, of Iowa, and Carl and Harry of the home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kreisler, of Lincoln; two brothers, Oliver, of Lincoln, and Lawrence, of Illinois, and one sister, Mrs. Emil Kreissler, of Lincoln.

Funeral services will be held at the Zion Lutheran church Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. Rev. J. A. E. Bauer will officiate.

Mrs. E. J. Daigle

Mrs. L. M. Decker, of 3019 East Twelfth street, Sedalia, left this morning for Port Arthur, Texas after receiving a message of the death of her mother, Mrs. E. J. Daigle. Mr. Decker was not able to attend the funeral as he is employed in Alaska at this time.

Young Visitor Finds a Moth

Harold Ray Howard, 13, of Florence, Mo., in Sedalia today with his mother, Mrs. Carl Howard and brother, Larry Eugene, to shop, joined the "rare moth" finders group, by picking one of the large, beautiful moths off a car.

The youth and his brother were standing on the sidewalk in the 100 block on East Main street, while his mother shopped in one of the stores on the north side of the street, he said, when he spied the vari-colored insect.

"Someone told me" he said, "if I would take it home, pin it to something by sticking a pin through its head, it will soon die, but its appearance will remain unchanged."

Carefully carrying the moth in a sack Harold started for his home.

Two Batteries Reported Gone

The McKinney Bros. service station, Third street and Massachusetts avenue, was broken into sometime Wednesday night by thieves who stole two batteries. Entrance was dgained through a rear door by lifting a latch which was loosened by the tripping of a war which was against the floor.

The robbery was discovered about 8 o'clock this morning.

Twice the front door of Dr. Edwin Epstin's office, 213 West Main street, was found open within four and one-half hours. It was found unlocked at 11 o'clock Tuesday night by Merchant Officer Joe Gresham and locked, and at 3:20 o'clock this morning it was again found unlocked.

Dr. Epstein was notified and upon investigating found $12 missing from the office.

The door was found unlocked early Tuesday morning.

Clergymen Visit Truman

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(AP)—A group of Protestant clergymen called on President Truman today and said he told them he was "glad to find a bunch of preachers who are not pacifists."

The delegation was from the American Council of Christian Churches. They said the council had representatives from some 15 denominations.

They gave Mr. Truman a copy of a program for "freedom and peace" which they said the council adopted in Atlanta a few days ago.

Among other things, the statement says:

"We reject 'program for peace' offered April 30 by the Federal Council of Churches as being based on pacifist principles, playing into Russia's hands, stimulating a desire and condition leading to appeasement and hesitancy in facing Russia, and designed to lead America away from her free economy and toward a socialistic order."

It also says "the United States must make it clear that she will fight for freedom and a free world."

Candidates Are in Oregon

PORTLAND, Ore., May 13.—(AP)—Republican Leaders Harold E. Stassen and Gov. Thomas E. Dewey headed today into the home stretch of their clear-cut race for this far west state's presidential preference vote.

Both candidates thumped on the topic of Communism last night.

Stassen initiated his final drive in an address here in Western Oregon. At the same time his New York opponent appeared before a crowd at Pendleton, in the Eastern Oregon wheat region. Each has a full schedule of appearances through the state before the ballots are cast May 21.

The election is the last direct primary before the party's national nomination convention in June. Both candidates—alone in the race—have to a great measure their presidential chances at stake in winning in Oregon.

Still undecided is the time and place for the unprecedented debate the two have agreed to stage.

Personals

Mrs. Albert Workman, of St. Louis, left this morning for her home, after a visit with her mother, Mrs. A. F. Shore, 1120 East Ninth street, and her sisters, Mrs. George Chandler, 810 East Fourth street, and Mrs. Potts Evans, 620 Wilkerson.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Farley, 916½ South Kentucky avenue, left this morning for St. Louis to attend the ball game.

Mrs. C. F. Curtner, Kansas City, Kas., arrived this morning and will visit her mother, Mrs. W. R. Curtner, in Lincoln.

Grover Thomas, 1512 East Broadway, left this morning for St. Louis to attend the ball game.

Mrs. Nellie Woolery and daughter, Judy, of Kansas City, arrived this morning to visit Mrs. Helen Carl, 415 Dal-Whi-Mo court.

E. D. Schupp, of Kansas City, arrived in Sedalia this morning and will go to Pleasant Green to visit his father, Frank Schupp, and his brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo E. Eckhoff, 705 West Fifth street, have had as their guests the past week Mrs. Eckhoff's brother, Melvin P. Little, of Des Moines, Ia., who has been in Sedalia making preparations for the Little concessions for the coming Missouri State Fair to be held in August.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brim and Janice Sue; Mrs. Elizabeth Schenk and Frederic Hintz spent Mothers' Day with Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Schenk.

Mr. and Mrs. Dove, of Smithton, returned home Sunday, after spending several days last week in Kansas City, the guest of their son, Mr. John Dove, Jr., and Mrs. Dove.

Mrs. Tennie Perkins, 318 West Broadway, has returned from Jefferson City, after a visit with her two sons, Orlando and Eugene Perkins.

Into Period of Stabilization

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(AP)—Emil Schram, president of the New York Stock Exchange, said today that "provided we keep our heads" there is no danger of runaway inflation or a great depression.

"We have emerged from the period of shortages and unless the congress permits the budget to become unbalanced again, I firmly believe we have already entered the postwar period of stabilization," Schram said in a statement to the senate-house economic committee.

The committee is studying anti-inflation proposals, particularly suggests to restrict bank credit.

"We cannot hope to attain absolute stability—it is not part of a dynamic economy," Schram said. "However, if we do not depress business phychology unnecessarily and adopt voluntary restraints such as the American Bankers Association has advocated, I see no reason why a large volume of goods and services cannot continue to be produced and taken off the market."

Object to 'The Iron Curtain

CLEVELAND, May 13.—(AP)—Leaflets attacking the motion picture, "The Iron Curtain," were passed out here last night at the show's Cleveland opening.

Uniformed policemen were stationed at both theater entrances, and detectives were among the audience. No disturbances were reported.

The leaflets said, "Don't buy this ticket to war." The movie is advertised as being based on "the personal life of Igor Gouzenko, former code clerk, USSR embassy in Ottawa, Canada."

The leaflets were signed by the "Cleveland Committee Against War Propaganda, 1975 E. 61st St." The Cleveland Council of American-Soviet Friendship is listed at that address in the telephone directory.

She Got Even, Then Got Off the Bus

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 13.—(AP)—Last fall an Oklahoma City bus rider kicked out the door and jumped when the driver wouldn't stop at his corner.

Now they've found a mate for him.

She is the portly lady who handed a wrong transfer to Driver J. B. Holcomb yesterday.

"I told her she'd have to put a token in the slot or get off," Holcomb told police.

"She tore up the transfer, threw it away, and hit me in the eye as she left."

Average Government Worker Gets $2,830

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(AP)—The average U. S. Government worker now makes $2,839 a year.

The civil service commission said so today after a study of federal pay scales in effect last July. Bills are pending to give some 1,300,000 federal employes a raise, but congress has not yet approved the proposed increases.

The commission reported 80 per cent of the federal job holders make from $1,500 to $3,500 a year, 3 per cent get less than $1,500 and the remaining 1 per cent earn $3,500 or more.

It noted that the $2,839 average 1947-48 salary was a boost over the 1946 figure of $2,680.

Ruby Duncan vs. Russell Klipper and James J. Brown. Russell Klipper and James J. Brown: You are each hereby notified that a lien has been filed against your Harley Davidson Motorcycle engine No. 35EL1608, held for storage and Harley Davidson Motorcycle, engine No. 31VL2488; held for storage, and unless you both appear before William Ilgenfritz, Magistrate of Pettis County, Mo., on or before the 20th day of May, 1948, the said motorcycles will be sold for storage.

WILLIAM ILGENFRITZ,
Magistrate.

Meeting at Higginsville

The American Legion and auxiliaries will assemble at Higginsville Sunday for a district meeting.

The meeting will open at 10:00 o'clock in the morning and a full day's program has been planned, with a luncheon at noon to which all will contribute a covered dish.

There will also be a dedication of colors with full ceremonies.

Delegates from Pettis County Auxiliary Unit will be Mrs. R. R. Conn, unit president; Mrs. Frank Piper, Mrs. Glen Lewis, Mrs. Homer Hall, Mrs. Allan Duff and Mrs. James Franks.

Attending the meeting will be the Department President of the Auxiliary, Mrs. Edward Brewer, of Perryville, and Department Commander, Raymond Roberts, of Farmington.

Americans at Palace Party

LONDON, May 13.—(AP)—Socially prominent Americans were received at a presentation party in Buckingham Palace today for the first time since before the war.

Squired by Ambassador and Mrs. Lewis Douglas, 30 of them, including 20 women, joined a throng of some 2,500 of many nations in the state apartments. King George, Queen Elizabeth and others of the royal family moved among the crowd.

It was the second of the big parties raising the curtain on royalty's social season, which includes another indoor affair next month and two garden fetes in July.

There was practically none of the ceremonial of pre-war evening courts. Instead of being presented individually to the enthroned King and Queen, debutantes, diplomats, military and naval officers, their wives and daughters and the other guests met them as they strolled about the rooms informally.

German Women Protest Against Food Shortage

FRANKFURT, Germany, May 13.—(AP)—German women 5,000 strong marched on Adolf Hitler's former parade ground in Munich today in protest against food shortages.

"We and our children are hungry," they cried. Another 800 paraded before the Coburg city hall demanding an "end of the hunger government."

Thousands of men were on strige against food shortages in the American zone, particularly in Munich, Nuernberg and Augsburg.

Retail Credit Association Meeting on Friday

The regular monthly meeting of the Sedalia Retail Credit Association will be held Friday at Hotel Bothwell, Palm Room, starting at 11:30 a. m.

The program will be in charge of President Mrs. Vivian McMullin and will consist of ledger information discussion.

All member firms are asked to have representatives present.

Britain Developing Weapons

LONDON, May 13—(AP)—Britain is developing "all types of modern weapons, including atomic weapons,' Minister of Defense A. V. Alexander said Wednesday.

"Research and development continue to receive the highest priority in the defense field," Alexander said in Parliament to a question from Laborite George Jeger.

U.S. Air Mail Service Observance

Celebrate 30th Anniversary Week Of May 15-21

The post office department in Washington, D. C., is setting aside the week of May 15-21 as a partial observance of the 30th anniversary of the United States Air Mail Service.

"The story of the growth of Air Mail since May 15, 1918," Postmaster E. P. Mullaley said, "when a single-motor open cockpit plane took off from East Potomac Park in Washington, D. C., bound for New York City, 218 miles away, is a thrilling chapter in our national life. For it contains all the elements that go into the growth and development of a nation and its people—perseverance, patience, courage, hope and faith.

"The success of that original 218-mile route," Postmaster Mullaley stated, "is today represented in a network of 130,000 miles of air routes in the United States, and a foreign air service that reaches into every country on the glome. Air mail was, perhaps more than any other factor, responsible for the development of an air transport system and aviation industry unequalled anywhere in the world—a combination which served our nation in a world of peace, and which is and has proved itself a real bulwark in protecting the ideals of those who want government based on democratic principles.

A Step Toward Progress

"Air Mail," Postmaster Mullaley added, "is more than a means of speeding communications across the land and to foreign countries; rather, it is synonymous with our national well-being and our hopes and aspirations for future progress. In these momentous days of decision, it is gratifying to know, because of the impetus given to aviation by the United States Air Mail Service, that we have available a potent instrument for good, not only for ourselves but for the world.

Local Situation

Air Mail dispatcher from the Sedalia Post Office by way of Kansas City will reach its destination as shown below if it is deposited in the Main Post Office by the time indicated: Deposited in the Sedalia Office at 8:40 p. m.; from Sedalia to Los Angeles, 12 hours; from Sedalia to San Francisco, 13 hours; from Sedalia to Phoenix, Ariz., 10 hours; from Sedalia to Chicago, 5½ hours; from Sedalia to Ft. Worth, Texas, 7 hours; from Sedalia to Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, 10 hours.

Trans-Atlantic Air Mail leaves Kansas City each day at 8:10 p. m. and arrives in Paris at 12:10 p. m. the second day.

Air Mail may be registered, insured, or C. O. D.

Effective November 1st, 1946, the Post Office Department inaugurated their new Air Mail Rates to foreign countries.

New Rates

The new rates to India and Australia, which also applies to Central and Southern Africa, Asia and other trans-Pacific destinations, is only 25 cents per half-ounce. The new rate to Egypt is only 15 cents per half-ounce, which also applies to Northern Africa. A rate of only 10 cents per half ounce will apply to all of Central and South America. Air Mail for every country of the world to which the service exists will then be subject to a rate per half-ounce of either 10 cents, 15 cents or 25 cents, except Canada and Mexico, to which the domestic rate of 5 cents per ounce applies, and Cuba, which is subject to the rate of 8 cents per half-ounce.

Air mail anywhere in the world for 25 cents or less per half-ounce, together with the new domestic air-mail rate of 5 cents per ounce, exemplifies the department's earnest desire to enable the mailing public to enjoy the fullest possible benefit of the ever-expanding net work of world-wide air routes for the dispatch of their mail.

Delegates to the TPA Convention

Speculation Over Molotov-Smith Conversation

By DeWitt MacKenzie
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Argument and speculation over the conversation between Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov and American Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith continue to snowball without much indication of where the end may be.

What is said to have started out as an informal and private chat between the two diplomats has both hemispheres by the ears—a development which many observers attribute to smart manipulation by Molotov. It now appears that he acted without consulting Washington in giving to the press a statement which conveyed the idea that the United States had invited Russia to a conference to discuss relations between the two countries—an invitation which the Soviet Union regarded with favor.

Created A Sensation

Naturally the announcement created a world-wide sensation, especially since it placed the United States in the doubtful position of initiating what might be seized on by critics as appeasement. Indeed one Communist newspaper in Germany did declare that this showed America was fed up with the cold-war. Moreover, Britain and France gave indications of being considerably miffed at not having been informed by the United States about this important move.

Washington promptly denied that any invitation had been extended, although it reiterated that the door always was open for conversations if Moscow wanted them. Even President Truman took a hand in clarifying the situation, declaring that there had been no change whatever in American policy.

Amplified U. S. Position

Then yesterday Secretary of State Marshall amplified and emphasized America's position. He stated emphatically that "This government had no intention of entering into bi-lateral negotiations with the Soviet government on matters relating to the interests of other governments." He said such discussions "must, as a matter of course, be conducted in the body charged with responsibility for these questions," an obvious reference to the United Nations.

Gradually these statements seem to have had their effect in getting the facts before a much excited Europe. The idea grows among observers that Mr. Molotov slipped across a very hot one, which might easily have put the United States in the position of appearing as an appeaser, but which has been largely countered by quick action.

Extraordinary Aspect

One of the most extraordinary aspects of the situation is that British Foreign Secretary Bevin came to the aid of the United States with a red hot speech in Parliament. Bevin reportedly was annoyed at the outset because he hadn't been informed in advance about the Molotov-Smith exchange. However, when he learned the facts he swung into action. Without mincing words he gave Moscow a dressing-down for publicizing the Russian and American statements. Said he:

"If the ambassador of a nation cannot discuss quite frankly with the foreign minister of another country without publication; if he cannot do that in order to bring the parties together, then the situation is not only intolerable, but peace is impossible."

Must Clear Ground

Bevin declared he is "anxious for peace, anxious for a settlement with Russia." But he added that there can be no settlement until the ground has been cleared. Only the Communists, he said, are standing in the way of world peace.

So that seems to leave us about where we were before the Molotov-Smith conversation, except that Russia is assured America is always ready to discuss problems through the proper diplomatic agencies.

Family Week Observance

In observance of National Family Week, Sedalia's Negro Youth Council had as guest speaker, Mrs. Myrtle L. Jackson, wife of Rev. J. C. Jackson, Sedalia district superintendent of the Negro Methodist church and mother of two youths attending respective Negro colleges.

The observance of National Family week, Mrs. Jackson elaborated in her discourse, comes to give us an opportunity to catch up the slack in our family life. It gives the family the chance to draw closer together. The home is the foundation of family life and since the theme for Family Week is Christ at the center of home life, the family life should avail a Christian foundation. This theme, she stated further, makes us think that something has happened to our home life, that Christ has moved from the center and something else has taken his place. Mrs. Jackson concluded her address by saying to the council, "May I say to you as you go forth to establish our home, put into the structive love, loyalty, faith." In a Christian home every member is accepted for what he is and what he can do. How good to belong to a family where each person is loved because he belongs to the family.

Presented Corsage

As a tribute to a mother and appreciation for her address, Mrs. Jackson was presented a corsage of red carnations by the council's president, Miss Arline Carter.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses and host, Miss Naomi, Barbara and Ray Parks respectively assisted by their mother, Mrs. Lyman Parks and Miss Nola Shockley. Miss Naomi Parks is the assistant secretary of the council and Miss Dorothene Williams is the recently elected treasurer succeeding Miss Araminta Williams who tendered her resignation.

The next meting of the council will be held Thursday night May 13 in the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. Y. Jackson pastor of Burns Chapel Free Will Baptist church with their nephew, William Jackason as host.

Mortgage To Be Foreclosed

A decree was entered in circuit ccurt, Wednesday in the damage suit of Carl G. Schrader and W. C. Crammer against Minnie B. Herrick, which was filed last March. The court finds the issue in favor of plaintiffs in the sum of $16,-594.15.

The plaintiffs hold title to real-estate described in the petition to wit: Lot 4, and the west 5 feet, 8¼ inches of lot 5 in block 46 of the original plat of the city of Sedalia, as mortgages for security of the unpaid balance of $16,-594.15, now due and owing to the plaintiff, and was ordered and decreed that the mortgage of the plaintiffs be foreclosed, and the said real-state be sold by the sheriff of this county.

Fox Plows Under Trail

ST. JOE, Ark.—(AP)—The atomic age hasn't dimmed the cunning of ol' Br'er Fox. In north Arkansas recently, a fox used this method to outwit his old foe, hounds.

Tiring of having dogs yapping at him for two hours, the fox came upon a field in which a farmer was plowing mile-long furrows. The fox ran down an open furrow and on the next round, the plow neatly covered Br'er Fox's trail.

This fox is believed to have been the same one which sprung a slick trick several months ago on a pack of hounds. He escaped by running through a herd of cows with young calves. The lone fox made it okay, but when the dog pack tried it, they brought down the wrath of mama cows, who charged the hounds and broke up the hunt then and there.

Piscatorial Escort

Pelorus Jack was the world's most famous sea animal. For many years, this grampus escorted steamers through French Pass, off the coast of New Zealand. The government of New Zealand passed a law protecting him.

Scout Troops Have Banquet

Scout Troop No. 1 and Brownie Troop No. 2, of La Monte, enjoyed a mother and daughter banquet at the Methodist church Monday evening. Joan Boyd was toastmistress. Mrs. J. L. Lindaman gave the "Toast to Mothers" and Mrs. Ralph Halenbeck the toast to the daughters.

The menu consisted of fruit juice cocktail, chicken pie, buttered peas, green salad, iced tea, ice cream and cake. There were piano numbers by Glenna Rae De Frain, Rowena Hallenback and Reta Pearl Jackson. Poems by Maxine Moore, Dee Ann Green and Bina Higgins. There were three birthday cakes for Ida and Ella Hughes and Reta Pearl Jackson. Two songs were sung by the two groups, Troop 1 and Troop 2.

Mrs. Helen Smiley is leader of Troop 1 and Mrs. H. A. Wade is leader of the Brownies.

Awards of badges were presented to Troop 1 by the assistant leader, Mrs. R. M. Scott. The tables were decorated with flowers. Place cards had the Scout emblem and favors were corsages for each member.

The next meeting of the garden club will be at the home of Mrs. Clyde Swope and the Scout troop No. 1 will have charge of the program.

Offered Job In St. Joseph

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 13—(AP)—John W. Carlisle of the National Industrial Freight Association, St. Louis Wednesday was offered the post of transportation commissioner of the St. Joseph Chamber of Commerce.

He was recommended by a special committee seeking a successor to Harvey Krogman, who resigned to conduct a travel agency. Krogman had been commissioner for nine years.

Limestone reefs in western Texas, built up by sea animals millions of years ago, may hold the secret of new, untapped oil reserves.

Athletics' Win Streak To 10 Games

Score 6 Runs in 2nd Inning With Help of 4 Walks

By Jack Hand
Associated Press Sports Writer

Connie Mack's collection of draftees and hand-me-downs is showing up the rich major league clubs with a 10-game win streak. His Philadelphia A's are holding the old theory that you can't buy a pennant.

And they've been winning quite handily, too, although they did have to struggle to achieve an 8-4 victory over the St. Louis Browns last night. Three hits and four walks added up to six runs for Philadelphia in the second inning, to the delight of the crowd of 21,763.

Dick Fowler, the starter, faded in the seventh and Mack had to follow Reliefer Bob Savage with Lou Brissie who worked two hitless innings. The A's thumped loser Cliff Fannin and five successors for 10 hits.

Rain washed out the Yankee Stadium meeting of Cleveland and New York with the Yanks leading 3-1 in the home half of the fourth.

High Scoring Game to Detroit

Detroit staged two big innings to down Washington 14-9, although Hal Newhouser was knocked from the box for the fourth straight time. Dizzy Trout, third of four pitchers, notched the win over Reliefer Marino Pieretti.

Doerr's Homer Wins

Bobby Doerr's three-run homer in the tenth inning enabled Boston to grab a 6-5 win from Chicago. Cot Deal, who pitched to only two batters, picked up his first major league win at the expense of Earl Harrist.

Rain idled half the National league, the New York at St. Louis and Boston at Chicago games. However, the Pittsburgh Pirates were able to get in a game with the Phillies which dropped them a half game back of the Cardinals.

Donnelly Blanks Pirates

Blix Donnelly of the Phils handed the Pirates their first shutout of the year, 5-0, allowing only three hits.

Hank Sauer unloaded his seventh homer, a three-run blast in the last of the ninth, but it was not enough. His Cincinnati Reds bowed to Brooklyn, 9-7, in a night game.

Joe Hatten, the first of four Dodger pitchers, was the winner over Johnny Vander Meer, but Leo Durocher had to whistle to the bull pen for Hugh Casey to end it in the ninth.

St. Paul Gains A Half Game

By the Associated Press

The St. Paul Saints, surprise team of the American Association's first month of play, staged a garrison finish to defeat Kansas City 7 to 6 last night and increase their league lead.

The Saints gained a half game on the idle Indianapolis Indians, whose scheduled game with Columbus was postponed because of rain. But their Twin City rivals, Minneapolis, knocked off Milwaukee 12 to 2 to stay two games away from the lead and a half game behind the Indians.

St. Paul, trailing 6-2 in the eighth inning, rallied for four runs to tie the score and then went on to win the contest in the ninth.

Charlie Samaklis, who pitched the last 5 2-3 innings for the Saints, started the ninth inning rally by doubling. Clarence Marshall, who had held the Saints to seven hits while giving up nine walks, was relieved. But his successor, Dave Madison, walked two men to load the bases. Eric Tipton's single was the payoff punch.

In the league's third game, Bob Raney hurled Toledo to a 4 to 2 win over Louisville.

Tonight's schedule:
Columbus at Louisville.
Toledo at Indianapolis.
Milwaukee at St. Paul.
Kansas City at Minneapolis.

Pitching Stars Having Trouble Finishing Games

By Joe Reichler

NEW YORK, May 12—(AP)—The pitching stars of 1947 are in for a rough time this year, if their early season performances are a criterion.

A half dozen hurlers managed to win 20 or more games last year. This exclusive list included Bob Feller, Cleveland; Ewell Blackwell, Cincinnati; Ralph Branca, Brooklyn; Larry Jansen, New York Giants and Warren Spahn and Johnny Sain, Boston Braves.

Here are their records thus far:

Blackwell — Two wins and three losses. Kayoed in four of five starts.

Feller — Three wins and two losses. Completed only two of five starts.

Branca — Two wins and three losses. Kayoed in three of four starts.

Jansen — Three wins and one loss. Kayoed in three of five starts.

Spahn — One win and two losses. Kayoed in two of three starts.

Sain — Two wins and two losses. Completed three of five starts.

Rough starts also are being experienced by such 1947 standouts as Hal Newhouser and Dizzy Trout of Detroit; Joe Dobson and Dave Ferriss of Boston Red Sox; Frank Shea and Ed Lopat of New York Yankees; George Munger and Murry Dickson of St. Louis Cardinals; Dutch Leonard, Philadelphia; Kirby Higbe and Vic Lombardi, Pittsburgh and Mickey Haefner of Washington.

Some blame the pitchers decline on the lively ball. That may be so, but how do you account for the fact that the Cardinals' Harry Brecheen has slung three shutouts in three starts; that the Phillies' Ken Heintzelman has pitched two scoreless games in two outings; that the Giants' Dave Koslo has allowed only one earned run in three games and that the Yankees' Allie Reynolds has twirled five straight winning games, all complete?

Locke Favored In Golf Tourney

PHILADELPHIA, May 13—(AP)—South Africa's Bobby Locke and 103 sandtraps are expected to make it even hotter than the weather for the 118 other participants in the Philadelphia Inquirer's Invitational Golf tourney that gets under way today.

And Philadelphia mercury has reached the high 80s on each of the past two days.

The 72-hole event is stretched over four days and Locke is expected to be the No. 1 man Sunday evening when the $2,250 first place check is handed out.

He is the defending champion. But the main reason he is expected to retain his crown is that the foreigner still is irked by the PGA's refusal to permit him to play in the National tourney next week. A triumph here would salve both his feelings and his pocketbook.

An entry list of 193 was cut to 119 yesterday by a preliminary round in which 122 golfers shot it out for 51 places.

The qualifiers were led by Ralph Hutchison of Bethlehem, Pa., a veteran teaching pro who carded a 73.

Locke said he was about even with par during a curtailed practice. Jimmy Demaret did about the same.

McIntyre Beats Lord Albert Mills

Wednesday night at the Armory, wrestling fans got a full evening of expected thrilling wrestling entertainment. Not a fan left in a huff nor was the large arena quiet from the time the bell tapped from the opening to the closing of the last match.

Fans welcomed the return to the Sedalia ring of Don McIntyre of Otterville and their pleasure was exhibited by the following of the fans when he was in the ring. He also gained revenge to a certain extent over Lord Albert Mills, London, England by defeating him in the main event.

Mills won the first fall when he succeeded in getting the abdominal stretch and McIntyre had to give up. It took 17 minutes and 41 seconds. The second fall went to McIntyre who succeeded in working a series of flying tackles and smother to win in eight minutes and 37 seconds. Then the third period the fans were kept standing from the excitement and McIntyre came through with flying tackles, turned them into flying mares and a body smother to win in 11 minutes and 38 seconds, much to the surprise of the big heavy from England.

Dot Dotson, Houston, Texas, got a lesson from Theresa Theis, Twin Falls, Minn., after she had challenged her to a return match following last weeks experience.

Miss Theis came through to win the first fall with monkey flips and a smother after nine minutes and 51 seconds of fast action in the ring. She took the second with a body smother in seven minutes at 47 seconds.

The opening event between Sonny Myers, St. Joseph, and Ray Vilmer, St. Louis, ended in a draw after the two heavies went the thirty minutes time limit. The two men worked hard trying to get the fall, but neither was able to keep up the pressure work long enough to win a fall.

Browns Lose to Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, May 13—(AP)—The league leading Philadelphia Athletics combined three hits with four walks in the second inning Wednesday night to score 6 runs and defeat St. Louis 8-4, extending a winning streak through 10 games. Dick Fowler was credited with his second victory in as many starts, though he needed help from Bob Savage and Lou Brissie.

A crowd of 21,763 saw Hank Majeski lead off the second inning with a single. Sam Chapman, Pete Suder, Fowler and Eddie Joost all walked, forcing in two runs. Barney McCosky unloaded a base cleaning double and scored on a single by Elmer Valo.

Though hit freely Fowler kept St. Louis from scoring through six innings. A walk to Chuck Stevens, single by Gerry Priddy and double by Al Zarilla produced two Brownie runs in the seventh before Savage came in to retire the side.

Three passes and a Majeski single regained the two runs for the A's but Savage served up three walks and a single to give St. Louis another pair before Brissie put out the fire.

Joost singled in the eighth to continue his hitting streak through 17 games.

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, May 13—(AP)—Johnny Lujack, who might have been a great left halfback at Notre Dame last fall if Frank Leahy had been three-deep in good quarterbacks, will play the left half spot for the Chicago Bears this year. Boss George Halas figures Sid Luckman and Bobby Layne can do an adequate job of quarterbacking. . . . Only 23 fillies by Bull Lea (sire of Citation and Coaltown) have been been sold on the open market. The 1942 the first four brought an average of $625; last year three averaged over $12,000.

Get It Right

Harry Jacunski, Yale assistant football coach who tutored the Harvard backs last fall, was discussing the 1947 Yale-Harvard game with Charley Loftus, the Eli's drumbeater, the other day. . . . "Did the Harvards really think they had a chance of beating Yale?" Loftus asked. . . . "Why certainly," replied Jacunski. "When the score was tied at 14-14 and we had the ball on your 20 yard line . . ." Loftus interrupted: "Wait a minute. You are now at Yale — when THEY had the ball on OUR 20 yard line."

Sportspourri

Zeke Bonura, who has a piece of the Stamford, Conn., club in the Colonial league, gets a kick out of pointing out that he and Hank Greenberg are ball playing who became club owner — and both first basemen. . . . Dinny Pails, the Australian tennis player, sums up his education from the current pro tour this way: "I have become an authority on hotel rooms and I consider that I drive pretty well on the wrong side of the road."

K. of C. Team to Play at Versailles

The Knights of Columbus softball team will open its season Friday night playing the first game in the newly organized Tri-County softball league at Versailles. The Knights have been practicing regularly for the past month and have played a number of practice games. They expect to field a strong team this year.

Manager Bundy stated that the tentative squad consists of the following, most of whom are expected to make the trip: Ash, Schweimer, Dick, White, F. Strohmer, H. Strohmer, Wall, Jackson, Miller, Means, McFadden, Mehl, Paxton, Guymon and Cave. The team will leave from the Knights of Columbus hall, Fourth street and Lamine avenue at 6:15 o'clock.

For the present time, all of the team's league games will be played out of town, but at a later date arrangements may be made to play some of the games here. As the league games are played only on Friday nights, the Knights are anxious to schedule games with other local or out of town teams. Any team desiring games should contact H. G. Eschbacher, 603 East Thirteenth street, phone 2182.

The Tri-County softball schedule for May 14:

Miss Cora Cordry

The Junior-Senior banquet was held Friday evening in the high school auditorium, which was decorated to represent a gypsy tent. Other decorations were within keeping of the gypsy custom.

The waitresses, Frances Jean Burford, Barbara Baker, Betty Sprinkle and Elizabeth Ann Broderson, who were in gypsy costume, served the following menu: Fruit cocktail, creamed chicken in patties, mashed potatoes, buttered peas, slaw, candied sweet potatoes, radishes, pickles, banana salad, hot rolls, butter, ice cream, angel food cake and iced tea.

Seated at the tables were the teachers: Superintendent V. Harrison, Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Wilbur, Miss Mae Steiner, Merle Cartwright. Dr. Wilbur was a special guest. Seniors: Shirley Bishop, Billy Ann Gochenour, Ilene Homan, Thelma Homan, Nellie Klein, Percy Crecelius, Jr., Bill Green, Orville Repper, Glen Lee Young. Juniors: Barbara Aeschbacher, Betty Bobbett, Anita Cline, Sarah Meyer, Marvin Burford, Arthur Fry, C. W. Marcum, Wilbur Putman, Leo Rehmer, Bob Ripley, James Sanders.

Marvin Burford, president of the Junior class, gave the welcome. Response was given by Glen Young, president of the Senior class.

The members of the Otterville Baptist church have bought the residence property of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Dunham in the north part of town to be used as a home for their pastor and his family. Mr. and Mrs. Dunham will move to their farm which they bought from Mrs. Elma Ferguson about three years ago as soon as the buildings they plan to erect are completed.

The new pastor, the Rev. Clyde Painton McGirk, who has accepted the call to this church and who entered upon his duties here Sunday, will move his family here as soon as possession is given. Rev. and Mrs. Painton and family were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Armstrong.

Miss Lois Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Barker, Sedalia, and Ray Hopkins, son of Mrs. Sallie Hopkins, Otterville, were married Saturday evening, April 24. Mr. and Mrs. Andy Niermeyer were their only attendants.

Mr. Hopkins spent three years with the armed forces in China. He is now employed by the Firestone company in Sedalia.

They will make their home with his mother for the present.

It is estimated that ice on the North American continent reached a thickness of 10,000 feet during the ice ages.

Baby's 'New Look'

French influence on baby's Spring fashions is evident in the extravagant yardage, fine fabrics and elegant trimmings. Ruffles and bands of imported Val lace are delicate frosting for the net-covered white crepe saeque and bonnet set shown on the baby, center above. The tiny fashion-plate, right, models a "midgie" frock of pink organdy which has a shirred yoke, bouffant skirt, and bow-tied sash. Lace edges the neckline, sleeves and sash ends. A dainty white batiste collar and a deep hemline are fashion features of the pastel blue chambray dress worn by the older tot at left. Skirt fullness is released from a smocked yoke.

Baccalaureate services for the high school senior class were held at the Baptist church with Rev. George Heslar, pastor of the California and Clarksburg Methodist churches, preaching the sermon. The high school chorus sang two songs, "Goin' Home" and "My God and I," accompanied on the piano by Miss Velma Hodge. The graduating class consists of four boys, Raymond Parker, Lester Rice, Paul Kueffer and Roy Winebrenner.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Battles had as their Mother's Day guests some of their children, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Battles and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Battles of Tipton and Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Koechner and children of Clarksburg.

Mrs. Sue Ernst of northeast of California spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. C. C. Edwards.

The Cross Lane club met Wednesday with Mrs. Leonard Martin at her home near Cross Lane school with ten members, five visitors and 14 children present. The day's work consisted of tacking one large and one baby bed comfort and making tea towels and button holes in some dresses. A contributed luncheon was served at the noon hour. The June meeting will be with Mrs. Golder Martin.

Mrs. Eliza Hamlin recently returned to her home after being at her daughter's, Mrs. George Shores in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Markway and children Stevie and Judy of Jefferson City spent Mother's day with Mrs. Markway's mother, Mrs. Myrtle Yarnell and daughter Mary Maxine.

Mrs. Nora Nelson of Prairie Home spent last week with her aunt Mrs. Mary McDaniel. During her visit there they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Minster.

Miss Nadine Nichols of Rockford, Ill., spent the weekend with her mother Mrs. Maude Skinner. Saturday they visited in the Lake of the Ozarks region with Mrs. Skinner's daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. Norman Offinger and with a son Hugh Nichols, who has employment at one of the resorts. Sunday they were visited by another son and wife Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Nichols of Versailles.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Crawford had as their guests Friday Mr. Crawford's sister Mrs. W. G. Hale and three daughters of Joplin.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford and daughter, Sharon Kay, of Boonville, visited here over the weekend with relatives.

Miss Myrtle Sappington spent the weekend at Tipton with her uncle Everett Pizer and her sister Margaret Sappington.

Mr. and Mrs. Lary Lavalle of Kansas City were weekend guests of her sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Shackleford and children.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Needels were surprised recently when they received a telephone call from their son Van Needels. He has been in England but had been sent back to the United States on business. He was in one of the coast cities and called his parents from there before returning to England.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Leonard and daughter Carol Frances of Ferguson spent Saturday night with her mother, Mrs. Lula Renshaw and were Sunday dinner guests of his mother Mrs. Maude Leonard and family.

Mrs. Nola Martin, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Albin and Robert Wingate drove through the Lake of the Ozarks region Sunday afternoon. On their way home, they stopped at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wingate near Camdenton. A tornado passed through the Wingate farm recently and uprooted many large trees in the vicinity but their home was untouched.

When Mrs. Frances Acosta, of San Francisco, was born back in 1844, James K. Polk had just become President and we were working up to the war with Mexico. Elias Howe had not yet patented his sewing machine and no one suspected that there was "gold in them thar hills" out West. Mrs. Acosta, who is up and about five hours a day, is shown in her LaGuna Honda Home quarters as she received congratulations on 104th birthday.

Britons might use these towels to weep in over the shortage of clothing and textile goods but they can't have the towels because they're all tied up with red tape. They are just part of tons of merchandise stacked in wholesalers' warehouses that can't be sold to stores because the retailers lack ration coupons. Merchants' squawks forced review of ration coupon system.

Moscow Hunting Season On

MOSCOW, May 11—(AP)— The 1948 Moscow hunting season, probably the biggest in the capital's history is on.

The city's railway stations are crowded on Saturday nights with hunters, guns, knapsacks and dogs. Many are taking their annual vacations and going to points as far away as Siberia, the Urals and the Caucasus.

Perhaps one of the biggest advantages offered by the country's game reservations are their close proximity to the cities. Muscovites, for instance, can make the weekend trips within a radius of the suburban railway lines.

A number of foreigners residing in Moscow have joined a hunting club reservation — about 60 miles north of the capital.

Politics for Polish Judges

WARSAW, Poland, May 11—(AP) —No judge or public prosecutor in Poland can be without politics, says the Socialist Press agenncy. "This does not, however, mean that he must necessarily be a party member. There are many workers among lawyers who, by their efficient work and political attitude, furnish proof of their sympathetic attitude towards the political and social changes introduced in Poland," the agency said.

The Agency also quoted ministry of justice officials as saying that courts machinery must be adapted to the principles of "People's Poland." Poland's courts already have been purged of judges who failed to see things in the light of the "New Poland."

Housing Gets The Bird

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 11—(AP)—Even though the University of Tennessee's new dental college building still is undr construction, a family of six is living on the third floor "penthouse." Workmen had just finished putting in overhead waterpipes when a robin chose one of the pipes as a likely spot for her nest.

While workmen swarmed over the building, the mama robin warmed her four blue eggs. She wouldn't budge when the man with an electric drill began to bore holes in the ceiling three feet from the nest. Even a photographer and his exploding flash bulb couldn't make the robin lose her poise. And papa robin paid no mind to all the folks while he fed the youngsters.

Labor Sought for Britain

LONDON, May 11—(AP)— The British government is sending out booklets on living conditions in Lancashire to displaced persons in Austria, hoping to lure them into jobs in the undermanned textile industry. The pamphlets describe the life of European volunteer workers, some 5,000 of whom now are at work in Lancashire spinning mills. The ministry of labor wants at least 20,000 more foreign workers in the industry before the end of the year.

Home Grown Products

DETROIT — (AP) — The Detroit Tigers this season are offering nine players who were either born in Detroit or lower Michigan or who spent their boyhood there. And all nine got their start on Detroit sandlots.

Pitchers Ted Gray, Art Houtteman, Hal Newhouser, and Bill Pierce all are native Detroiters, while Frank Overmire comes from Moline, Mich. Shortstop Connie Berry was born in Kalamazoo and Shortstopper Johnny Lipon moved to Detroit from Ohio as a lad. Johnny McHale, reserve first baseman, was born in Detroit, while Outfielder Ed Mierkowicz was born in Wyandotte, a Detroit suburb.

A new plaster forms on the walls a durable insulating coat of plastic impregnated mineral cork which also has sound-absorbing properties.

Koreans Use Spears for Defense

Specially deputized civilians of Kwangju, Korea, band together to protect their homes and vital installments from acts of sabotage by Communist-inspired terrorists as citizens in American- occupied Korea went to the polls. Because Koreans are not allowed to own firearms, the improvised bamboo spears are their only means of defense. (Signal Corps Radiophoto From NEA Telephoto)

Sen. Knowland Steps Down From Rostrum and Shouts at Sen. Taylor

WASHINGTON, May 13—(AP)—Senator Knowland (R-Calif) wrathfully denounced Senator Taylor (D-Idaho) in the Senate Wednesday after Taylor criticized President Truman and called Secretary of Defense Forrestal "a potential Hitler.'

Knowland, stepping down from the rostrum where he had been presiding, shouted that Taylor "could not if he tried have given more aid and comfort to the Kremlin" than he did in his remarks to the Senate.

Taylor is a candidate for the vice presidency on the Third Party Ticket of Henry Wallace.

Taylor opened a lengthy speech by saying Mr. Truman had turned down what Taylor called Russia's willingness to confer on differences between the United States and the Soviet.

Comment To Senate

"It isn't a question of America's bigness," Taylor told the Senate. "It's a question of the smallness of the President of the United States."

Taylor said "it is too bad the people of the United States and the world have to have their hopes dashed because we have a man from Missouri who thinks he has to live up to Missouri stubbornness, now that he has set out to be tough."

Taylor charged the administration is leading America "down the road Hitler took the Germans." He added "we have moved into Hitler's shoes" and are determined to conquer and "exploit the world."

The Idaho Senator called Forrestal "the most dangerous man in America today—he is a potential Hitler."

Shouted Denunication

Knowland, usually calm and deliberate when he speaks in the Senate, shouted his denunciation of Taylor.

"I do not know a person either on or off the floor of the Senate who has given more aid and comfort to the Kremlin than the Senator from Idaho,' Knowland said.

Noting that he himself is a Republican, Knowland said that made no difference when Taylor turned to criticism of the President of the U. S., a Democrat.

"As long as he sits in the White House, he is my President," Knowland exclaimed.

Taylor also accused the press of warmongering.

Knowland told him that his attacks on the press "follow the same pattern of every country that has lost its liberty.

"I defy the Senator to deny that the American people are better informed than any other people of the world," Knowland shouted.

'Humiliating' To Reporters

LONDON, May 13—(AP)— Lana Turner met British reporters in her London hotel suite Wednesday night The British Press Association called it "the strangest and most humiliating press conference yet held in Britain."

The reporters were invited to meet Miss Turner—honeymooning in Britain with her fourth husband, Henry J. Topping—at 6 p. m. They arrived punctually and were told to come back in 45 minutes. At 6:45 they were requested to return in 15 minutes. At 7 p. m. the six reporters who returned were asked up to Miss Turner's suite.

Lana bustled through the room and with a smiling "hello, folks," vanished down the corridor in the direction of actress Eleanor Powell's suite.

Two reporters followed, the others left. The two were invited in. "I love the English country,' said Lana. "The grass and the trees are so wonderfully green, and the tulips particularly and all the flowers are so terribly beautiful."

Topping intervened. "Gentlemen,' he murmured, "don't you think you've had enough?"

The two reporters, said the Press Association, agreed they had.

Reichmarshal's Widow Indicted

MUNICH, Germany, May 13—(AP)—Emmy Goering, widow of the reichsmarshal, was indicted Wednesday as a major offender under the de-Nazification law.

Mrs. Goering is in jail near Augsburg. She is charged with "profiteering' from Nazi connections. The trial date has not been set.

Her husband, Herman Goering, committed suicide in Nuernberg jail a few hours before he was to be hanged as a war criminal.

Address Given Wrong

Through misinformation given the newspaper it was stated Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Moore had named their infant daughter, Ruth Ann, and their address was 820 North Moniteau avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore do not live at that address as that is the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Williams.

Trunels then shot Callaway, officers were told.

Killed Over An Extension Cord

WICHITA, Kas., May 13—(AP)—Robert W. Callaway, 28, was shot to death here Wednesday night over what police said was an argument over an electrical extension cord.

Officers Donald Walters and Albert Nolund took James W. Trunels, 40, a Negro, into custody after Trunels had called police headquarters to say he had shot a man. No formal charges have been filed against Trunels as yet.

Officers Walters and Nolund said Trunels told them Callaway slapped Glendon Trunels, 10, during an argument over an extension cord leading to an irrigation pump on Gallaway's garden plot. The boy went home and told his father of the argument and Trunels went out to talk with Callaway. The boy denied to police that he had been slapped when questioned later.

Trunels told the officers Callaway hit him with his fist and reached down as though to pick up something off the ground,

He Sputtered, Stopped, Then Put in Lowers

WASHINGTON, May 13—(AP)—The gentleman from Pennsylvania really got his teeth into the subject.

Rep. Graham (R-Penna) was telling the House why he favored legislation to force executive departments to bare their secret records before congressional committees.

Suddenly, he sputtered—and stopped.

"Darn these teeth," he said with a laugh.

It developed that he was speaking without his "lowers." And he couldn't keep his uppers in place.

While the House roared Graham reached into his pocket, pulled out his lowers—and hitched them into place.

Then he swung back to his subject.

The electric trackless trolley made its debut in 1928 in Salt Lake City.
